

Goblins, Witches Will Abound At Seaside Halloween Carnival

By SUE BURK
FR 5-4549

A large crowd turned out at the Seaside PTA meeting last Thursday evening. It is wonderful encouragement to have so many parents interested in their child or children, their school, and their development and abilities while at school. Parents enjoy the coffee break in the homemaker room after the business meeting each time.

Mrs. William Steinwachs, of Sharayne Lane, made a beautiful and gay Halloween table centerpiece display. The Seaside Parent-Teacher Assn. will soon present its annual Halloween Carnival, on Oct. 29, from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. There will be some new booths plus a lot of the old entertainment. The dollar badges are a wee bit different this year, but for the best as they will offer the kiddies "more for their money." The costume parade will be held at high noon, with prizes for the best-costumed girl and boy and prizes for the runner-ups or second best costumed girl and boy.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Reger, Jr., of Doris Way, is on the sick list.

Rosemary "Clancy" McClune, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim McClune, of Doris Way, has been a stay at home lately. She has a bad cold. Last week, sister Betty had to stay home with the same ailment.

A plastics party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burk, of Zakon Rd., entertained guests—Bea Merola, Betty Kiehlley, Al pha Renz, Nellie Bickford, Rose Lee McClune, Lee Shanks, Ellen Cogswell, Betty Jo Mitchell, Rae Jeanne Williamson, and Virginia Johnson. Mrs. Marie Tahan, of El Segundo, acted as demonstrator of the plastics. Refreshments of refrigerator-chiffon pie and coffee were served to a happy group of gals.

Fred Renz, of Garden Grove, spent a recent evening with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. B. Frank Renz, of 5109 Zakon Rd.

New neighbors who have moved into their new home on Zakon are from Arkansas. They are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hendershot. Clarence and Linda have a new addition to their little family. Born in Harbor General on Oct. 10 was young lady, Dora Rebecca. Dora weighed 5 lbs., 12 ozs. Dora has a little brother named Clarence, Jr.

Saturday night guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Bickford and family, of 5117 Zakon Rd., were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bira, of Beverly Hills. Sunday evening guests were Mr. and Mrs. Burton Milligan.
